

Looking to get ahead in the world of work?

Need help with funding for school to help you achieve your career goals?

Want to start building a career that will move with you to your next base?

What Is MyCAA?

The Department of Defense's expanded Military Spouse Career Advancement Accounts (MyCAA) program is now offering up to $6,000 to military spouses who are interested in pursuing degree programs, licenses or credentials leading to careers in high growth, high demand portable career fields.

Open to spouses of active duty members and activated members of the National Guard and Reserve Components; MyCAA financial assistance pays for expenses such as post-secondary education and training, tuition, licensing, and credentialing fees.

How Do I Start?

Establish your own MyCAA Account by visiting the MyCAA website:

<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>

- Create a new profile to verify your eligibility
- Follow the simple steps to begin exploring your portable career options; find a school and develop an individual career goal and plan
- Discuss your plan with a Career/Education Consultant at Military OneSource to gain approval for financial assistance 1-800-342-9647

Want to discuss your career plan face-to-face? Call Beale Airman & Family Readiness Center (634-2863) to make an appointment with our career focus counselors. Or for FREE internet access with useful MyCAA links on the desktops, come in to the Discovery Resource Center at the Beale A&FRC.
